Dear Dick,

Please accept our sincere gratitude for the wonderful donation of services your company has given to Strawbery Banke Museum this year. There really is no adequate way for all of us at the museum to show our appreciation to you, however, we have enclosed a free corporate membership and 20 complimentary passes to the upcoming Candlelight Stroll for you and your staff.

All of us are very happy with the new Tyco Visitors Center and know what lengths you went to to save us money, but also bring the project in on time. You and your staff were wonderful to work. Now each day that the center is open we marvel at how it all happened so quickly, so well and what a wonderful addition it is to the museum.

Thank you.

Best regards,

Dear Crystal,

Please accept our sincere gratitude for your wonderful donation of services given to Strawbery Banke Museum this year. There really is no adequate way for all of us here at the museum to show our appreciation to you and to let you know how much it helps.

For the past few years, museum budgets have become tight and sometimes unyielding forcing us to look for support in other areas, such as in-kind donations. Museums are always in constant need of services and materials within its various departments and it forces us to be very resourceful. It is very gratifying when people, like yourself, understand that need and come to our aid.

THANK YOU!

Please find attached the form for your donated services/materials for your files. Should you need anything else, do not hesitate to let me know.

Best regards,

Director of Corporate and Government Relations
